Making Waves

After six years in the Afton Market Square, Making Waves...Hair Design Studio continues to offer family hair services such as haircutting, coloring, permanent waving, as well as facial waxing. We carry only the best in professional hair care product such as Euphora, Framesi, Phyto-Organics, Bennie, as well as many other boutique items, such as candles, purses, handmade cards, energy enhancing MochaTonix, and the powerful antioxidant OPC-3.

Connie Graham has been at Making Waves since the beginning, and has been a hairdresser for sixteen years. Connie lives in Rush City, Minnesota where she raises goats, chickens, and horses. You can visit her website at www.ourlittleacres.com. You can find Connie at the salon on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings, and can be reached at 651-492-0294.

Dawne Hemsch has been styling hair for twenty two years since graduating from the Horst Education Center in Minneapolis. She is an expert hair colorist and offers new clients 20% off their first visit! Dawne lives in Cottage Grove with her children, and loves to be on the road on her motorcycle. Call Dawne directly at 651-271-5910.

As the owner of Making Waves, Julie Anderson's hairdressing career of twenty three years has been rewarding in many ways. Taking a leap of faith, she opened a small one-chair salon, which has now expanded and grown into a beautiful five-chair, viable working salon. Interested in the many aspects of salon ownership, Julie often is taking business and hands-on training classes. Growing up in the area, and being an active member of the community, she truly feels that the valley is her home. Julie enjoys bicycling, gardening, and shopping! Catch her anytime at 651-271-3515.

After twenty years of styling hair in Stillwater, Lynn Colburn brought her business right back home to Afton. Having grown up on Indian Trail, her move to Afton has giving her time to expand her career to include a position as a part time educator at the Minnesota School of Cosmetology. Lynn also enjoys continuing her own education by attending many classes and regional hair shows. You will find Lynn at the salon on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Her direct phone number is 651-206-1568.
